2 – Object

2.1. This Disclosure and Negotiation Policy, prepared pursuant to CVM Instruction 358, and observing the rules established in the New Market listing Regulation approved by CVM on a meeting held on September 05th, 2017 (“New Market”), aims at establishing rules which must be observed by the Investor Relations Officer and other Concerned Persons in relation to the disclosure of Relevant Information and preservation of confidentiality about Relevant Information which have not been disclosed to the public, as well to establish rules to assure best practice in the negotiation of Organized Markets by Concerned Persons.

2.2. Any questions on the provisions of this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy, the applicable regulation issued by CVM and/or on whether it is necessary to disclose any piece of information to the public must be clarified with the Investor Relations Officer.

3 – ADHESION

3.1. Those who must sign the Adhesion Term to this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy, in order to become Concerned Persons for the purposes provided herein, include direct and indirect controlling shareholders, directors, members of its Board of Directors, Audit Committee and any other bodies with technical or consultant duties created by statutory provision, Company managers and employees, subsidiary companies and/or under regular control and their respective controlling shareholders, members of the administration or bodies with technical or consultant duties, service providers and other professionals, including hired third parties, who have frequent access to permanent or potential Relevant Information deemed necessary or convenient to the Company.

3.2. The Company will keep, in its headquarters, a list of Concerned Persons and their respective qualifications, indicating position or function, address and enrollment number with the Corporate and/or Individual Taxpayer Registration, updated whenever necessary.

4 – PURPOSE OF THE RELEVANT INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

4.1. The purpose of the Relevant Information disclosure is to ensure the availability, in good time, efficiently and reasonably, of the necessary information needed for investors to take their investment decisions, ensuring the best symmetry possible in the disclosure of information.

4.2. Therefore, it seeks to avoid the misuse of Relevant Information in the securities market by persons who have access to it, for the benefit of themselves or of others, to the detriment of investors in general, the market and the Company itself.

5 – NOTICE TO THE MARKET

5.1. Notice to the Market is the instrument whereby the Company will disclose (“Notice to the Market”):

- (i) within the scope of this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy, any information that is not conceptually Relevant Information, according to CVM Instruction 358, but the Investor Relations Officer considers useful to take to the knowledge of investors and market participants, even if its disclosure is not legally required;
- (ii) the releases set down in CVM Instruction 358 not characterized as Relevant Information; and
- (iii) the clarifications made by the Company about CVM or Stock Exchange enquiries, that in the understanding of the Investor Relations Officer shall not be presented as Relevant Information.

5.2. The Notice to the Market disclosure aims for the comprehensive and consistent availability of information considered useful to the shareholders and to the market.

5.3. Example of information that can be object of Notice to the Market:

- (i) reports and materials disclosed in meetings with analysts;
- (ii) clarifications rendered to CVM or the Stock Exchanges;

(iii) acquisition or sale of any relevant stake by means of Article 12 of CVM Instruction 358 (observing the exception constant on §5º of the referred article); or

(iv) other information that the Company understands is useful to the shareholders, seeking attend the principles and objectives of this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy.

6 - DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Investor Relations Officer

6.1. Responsibilities of the Company's Investor Relations Officer include, besides those provided by law or established by the CVM, by the New Market, by the Company's Bylaws or Board of Directors:

(i) disclose and notify the CVM and the Stock Exchanges immediately upon knowledge, any act or fact occurring or related to Company business which is considered Relevant Information;

(ii) disclose Notice to the Market to CVM and the Stock Exchanges in the situations deemed necessary;

(iii) ensure that Relevant Information is widely and immediately disclosed simultaneously to the market, as well as to investors in general; and

(iv) avoid premature information from being reported and preserve confidential information in order to prevent information asymmetry and leakage and the use of privileged or Relevant Information.

Procedure for the Disclosure of Relevant Information or Notice to the Market by the Investor Relations Officer

6.2. The disclosure of Relevant Information or Notice to the Market to CVM and Stock Exchanges must be immediately made by the Investor Relations Officer by means of written document describing acts and/or facts occurred in detail and indicating, whenever possible, the amounts involved and other clarifications.

6.3. The Relevant Information must be disclosed to the public by means of announcement published in Portuguese and in English in the website [www.fatos-relevantes.com], clearly and precisely defined, with accessible language to the market and with content at least identical to the text sent to CVM and the Stock Exchanges.

6.4. Whenever Relevant Information is disclosed by any means of communication, including information to the press or meetings with trade associations, investors, analysts or selected public, in the Country or overseas, the Relevant Information must simultaneously be disclosed to CVM, Stock Exchanges and investors in general.

6.5. Any Concerned Person who has knowledge of acts or facts which may be classified as Relevant Information must make immediate communication to the Investor Relations Officer.

6.6. The Concerned Persons who have knowledge of Relevant Information must, whenever they observe that it is not Relevant Information that shall be legally kept in secrecy and has omission in the disclosure, being omission characterized three (3) business days after proven receipt of written notification addressed to the Investor Relations Officer, communicate the Relevant Information directly to CVM. As per established in item 8.1 below, while not disclosed, the Relevant Information must be kept in confidentiality.

6.7. The Relevant Information must preferably be disclosed before the beginning or after the end of Stock Exchanges business, with a 30 (thirty) minutes minimum notice in relation to the bid opening, or after its closure. In case the Stock Exchanges are not operating simultaneously, the disclosure must be made observing the business hours of Stock Exchanges located in Brazil.

6.8. If is essential that the disclosure of relevant act or fact occurs during the negotiation, including the hypothesis of loss of control over information secrecy, the Company must contact the Stock Exchange before the effective disclosure of relevant act or fact to the market. The Investor Relations Officer may request, always simultaneously to Stock Exchanges, the suspension of the negotiation of Securities issued by the Company, or to them referred, for the time necessary to correct dissemination of Relevant Information, in observance of the proceedings set forth in the regulations edited by the Stock Exchanges and organized market entities.

6.9. In case CVM or the Stock Exchanges require clarifications from the Investor Relations Officer regarding the disclosure of Relevant Information, or if atypical fluctuation occurs in the quotation, price or amount negotiated in Securities issued by the Company or to them referred, the Investor Relations Officer shall inquire Concerned Persons, with the purpose of ascertaining if they have any knowledge of information that should be disclosed to the market.

6.10. The decision of the Investor Relations Officer of the Company about the relevance of the information in the specific case, its framework as Relevant Information or the necessity of its disclosure through Notice to the Market will consider the context and the dimension of the businesses of the Company. For this analysis, the Investor Relations Officer may seek orientation from other areas of the Company or from external entities (auditors and lawyers, for example).

7 – EXCEPTION TO THE IMMEDIATE DISCLOSURE OF RELEVANT INFORMATION

7.1. The acts or facts that constitute Relevant Information may not be disclosed if its disclosure represents a risk to the legitimate interest of the Company.

7.2. The Company may decide to submit, to CVM, the issue regarding disclosure of Relevant Information which may represent a risk to the legitimate interest of the Company to the public.

7.3. Whenever undisclosed Relevant Information to the public becomes known by people other than those who (i) had known it originally; and/or (ii) decided to keep Relevant Information confidential, or, in case atypical oscillation in the quotation, price or amount of Securities negotiated is observed, the Investor Relations Officer must make sure the Relevant Information is immediately disclosed to CVM, Stock Exchanges and the public.

8 – OBLIGATION OF KEEPING RELEVANT INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL

8.1. The Concerned Persons must keep confidential undisclosed Relevant Information they have access to as a result of the title or position they occupy, until such Relevant Information is disclosed to the public, as well as ensure that their subordinates and trustworthy third parties also do so, jointly responding with them in the event of non-compliance.

8.1.1. The Concerned Person who no longer works at the Company, or no longer takes part in the business or project that refers to the Relevant Information, will still have the confidentiality responsibility until that information is released to CVM, Stock Exchanges and to the market.

8.2. Even after its disclosure to the public, the Relevant Information must be considered undisclosed until market players have reasonable time to receive and process the Relevant Information.

Procedures to preserve confidentiality

8.3. In compliance with the laid out in item 8.1 above, Concerned Persons must observe the following proceedings:

- (i) must not discuss Relevant Information in public places or in the presence of third parties even if the referred third party cannot perceive the meaning of the conversation;
- (ii) must only deal with issues related to Relevant Information with those who must know the Relevant Information, as a result of the title or position they occupy, in the appropriate extension;
- (iii) must not discuss Relevant Information in conference calls in which there is no certainty of the persons who effectively can participate;
- (iv) must keep any document with reference to the Relevant Information, including personal handwritten notes, in a locker, that only authorized people may have access to know the Relevant Information; and
- (v) without prejudice of the responsibility of who is transmitting the confidential information, require the signing of a confidentiality term from third parties external to the Company that need to have access to information (except those person who already have a legal duty to keep secrecy), in which the nature of the information must be specified and must have a declaration that the third party recognizes its character as Relevant Information, committing itself to not disclose to any other person and to not negotiate with Securities issued by the Company before the information is released to the market.

8.3.1. When the confidential information must be released to a Company employee or other person that is not a Concerned Person, the person responsible for the transmission of information shall certify that the person who is receiving has knowledge of this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy.

8.4. Any violations to this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy observed by Concerned Persons must be immediately communicated to the Company, represented by the Investor Relations Officer.

8.5. In case any Concerned Person observes that the undisclosed Relevant Information became known by people other than those who (i) had known it originally; and/or (ii) decided to keep Relevant Information confidential, or also, atypical oscillation in the quotation, price or amount of Securities negotiated is observed, such fact must be immediately communicated to the Company, represented by the Investor Relations Officer.

9 – COMMUNICATION REGARDING NEGOTIATION BY MANAGEMENT

9.1. According to Article 11 of CVM Instruction 358 and the New Market Regulation, the controlling shareholders, officers, members of the Board of Directors, members of the board of auditors and members of bodies with technical or consulting duties created by the bylaws shall inform the Company about ownership and negotiations realized with Securities issued by Aliansce Sonae, whether it is theirs or in name of Related Persons.

9.2. The communication which refers item 9.1 must comprehend the negotiations with derivatives or any other securities in the Securities issued by the Company or issued by its subsidiaries.

9.3. The notice shall be done in the form of the Schedule I to this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy and sent to the Investor Relations Officer of the Company: (i) within 5 (five) days after the execution of each business or (ii) in the first business day after coming into office.

9.4. The Company shall release to CVM and, if applicable, to the Stock Exchanges, the information referred in items 9.1, 9.2 and 9.3 regarding the Securities negotiated:

- (i) by itself, its controlled companies and affiliates; and
- (ii) by the other persons referred to in item 9.1.

9.4.1. The information shall be released by the Company with 10 (ten) days after the end of the month in which alterations in the positions held are verified, the month in which the persons mentioned in item 9.1 are invested into office, or the month in which the communication prescribed in item 9.5 below happens.

9.5. The persons referred in item 9.1 shall inform the Company, within 15 (fifteen) days from the alteration date, any alteration in the names and the enrollment number in the Brazilian Registry of Corporate Taxpayers or in the Brazilian Registry of Individual Taxpayers of the Related Persons.

9.6. The Investor Relations Officer is responsible for the transmission to CVM and, if applicable, to Stock Exchanges of the information received by the Company in accordance with the established in item 9.

9.7. For the purpose of item 9, the negotiation with Securities issued by the Company, its controlling and controlled companies, is comparable to the submission, withdrawal and negotiation of investment fund shares whose bylaws foresee that its shares portfolio is composed exclusively by shares issued by the company, its controlling and controlled companies.

10 – COMMUNICATION REGARDING ACQUISITION OR SALE OF RELEVANT PARTICIPATION

10.1. The direct or indirect Controlling Shareholders, any shareholder who appoints members of the Board of Directors or Fiscal Board of the Company, as well as any individual or entity, or group of entities acting together or representing a common interest, that execute Relevant Negotiation shall communicate it immediately to the Company through the Investors Relations Officer, as prescribed in Article 12 of CVM Instruction 358:

- (i) name and qualification, indicating the enrollment number in the Brazilian Registry of Corporate Taxpayers or in the Brazilian Registry of Individual Taxpayers;
- (ii) purpose of the stake and amount, containing, if it is the case, declaration that the business do not aim to modify the controlling composition or the administrative structure of the Company;
- (iii) number of shares and other Securities and financial instruments referred in those shares, clarifying the amount, the class and type of the shares; and
- (iv) indication of any agreement or contract regulating the exercise of voting rights or the purchase and sale of Securities issued by the Company; and
- (v) if the shareholder is a resident or domiciled abroad, the name or corporate name and the enrollment number in the Brazilian Registry of Corporate Taxpayers or in the Brazilian Registry of Individual Taxpayers of its legal representative in the country for the effects of Article 119 of the Brazilian Corporate Law No. 6.404/76, as amended.

10.2. Relevant Negotiation shall mean the business or set of businesses whereby any direct or indirect stake of the persons referred in item 10.1 exceeds the threshold of 5%, 10%, 15%, and so on, of one type or class of shares of the Company.

10.2.1. The shares object of loan must be considered in the calculation of the increase or decrease of stake for the purpose of item 10.2 above.

10.2.2. The communication of item 10.1 shall be done immediately after the stake referred in item 10.2 above is reached, discriminating the portion of shares that has been acquired or sold through loan of shares.

10.2.3. In cases where the acquisition results or has been made with the purpose of modifying the controlling structure or the administrative structure of the Company, as well as in cases where the acquisition creates the obligation of a public offer, as prescribed by applicable regulation, the acquiring person shall, still, promote the notice disclosure through the same channels usually used by the Company, at least, containing the information specified in subitems (i) to (v) of item 10.1.

10.3. Except for the provisions of item 10.3.1 below, the obligations of item 10.1 also extend to:

- (i) the acquisition of any rights over shares and other Securities, mentioned in item 10.1; and
- (ii) the celebration of any derivative financial instruments referred to in shares, as mentioned in item 10.1, even if without physical settlement provision.

10.3.1. In the cases mentioned in item 10.3 above, the provision of Article 12, §3º of CVM Instruction 358 must be observed.

10.4. The Investor Relations Officer is responsible for the transmission of information to CVM and, if applicable, to the Stock Exchanges, until the start of bidding in the fourth business day subsequent:

- (i) to the date of implementation of the buy or sell order of Securities admitted to negotiation in the markets managed by the Stock Exchange ; or
- (ii) to the date of celebration of the contract – through not listed instrument – that can result in the exercise of rights that have as basis shares that, considering the stake already held by the investor, comes to represent a relevant percentage in the type or class of shares issued by the publicly-held company.

10.4.1 The exemption to item 10.4 above occurs in the cases where a negotiation has been done with the purpose of changing the controlling or administrative structure of the Company. In this case, the same regime to disclosing relevant facts shall be followed, according to Article 3 of CVM Instruction 358.

11 – PROHIBITIONS ON TRADING SECURITIES

11.1. The following Concerned Persons shall refrain from negotiating Securities issued by the Company, regardless of an order by the Investor Relations Officer in this regard:

(i) all Concerned Persons in the period of 15 days prior to the disclosure of quarterly information (ITR) and annual information (DFP, financial statements and Reference Form), required by CVM, except the established in item 12.1 below;

(ii) prior to the disclosure to the public of any Relevant Information, the Concerned Persons or anyone that as a result of the title or position occupied in the Company, its controlling or controlled companies or affiliates, that have knowledge of such Relevant Information or its disclosure date;

(iii) if there is the intention of promoting a merger, partial or total spin-off, amalgamation, transformation or corporate restructuring, the Concerned Persons that have knowledge of such intention; and

(iv) if an acquisition or sale by the Company of shares issued by the Company itself, its controlled companies, affiliates or other companies under the common control, is under way, or if there is an option or power-of-attorney for the same purpose, in the case of direct or indirect Shareholders, officers and members of the Board of Directors and any Concerned Person that has knowledge of such acquisition or sale. The trading restriction established under this item shall apply only in respect to dates on which share repurchases are actually carried out by the Company. Accordingly, while a share buyback program may be under way at any time, no trading restriction shall apply on the days that the Company is not purchasing the Company's own Securities on the market.

11.2. The Company and Concerned Persons must abstain from negotiating Securities issued by the Company in all periods when the Investor Relations Officer has determined the prohibition of negotiation, under previous authorization by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors ("Blackout Period"). The Investor Director Officer is not obligated to justify the decision determining the Blackout Period, which will be treated with confidentiality by its recipients.

11.3. Before the public disclosure of the Relevant Information, it is prohibited to negotiate, provide investment advice or assistance in Securities by Concerned Persons that have knowledge of Relevant Information and/or its disclosure date, as well as when is under public disclosure of Securities issued by the Company.

11.4. The Concerned Persons must assure that their commercial contacts, targets (possible companies to be acquired) and those who maintain commercial, professional or trust relations, do not negotiate Securities when they have access to Relevant Information. Therefore, Concerned Persons will make their best effort so that anyone who accesses Relevant Information sign the appropriate Adhesion Term to this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy.

11.5. The prohibitions on trading Securities issued by the Company set in items (ii) and (iii) of item 11.1 above should be observed by the Concerned Persons until the disclosure of Relevant Information to the public. However, such prohibitions will be maintained even after the disclosure of Relevant Information, in the event that any negotiations with Securities by Concerned Persons may interfere to the detriment of the Company or its shareholders with the act or event associated with the Relevant Information.

11.6. Concerned persons that withdraw from their positions in the management of the Company prior to the disclosure of Relevant Information originated during their period of office may not negotiate with the Securities until 6 (six) months after the date of their withdrawal, or until the public disclosure of Relevant Information, except in the case of item 11.5 above.

11.7. The prohibition set in subitem (ii) of item 11.1 is not applicable to the acquisition of shares in treasury, through private negotiation, arising from the exercise of purchase option according to stock purchase options approved in General Meeting.

11.8. The prohibitions set in subitems (ii), (iii) and (iv) of item 11.1 and item 11.6 are not applicable to negotiations executed by the Company, its direct or indirect controlling shareholders, officers, members of the Board of Directors, Fiscal Board and any other board with technical or consultative functions, created by statutory provision, in accordance with the proceedings set forth in item 12 below.

11.9. If any agreement or contract has been celebrated aiming the transference of the shareholding control, or if an option or term has been granted for the same purpose, as well if an intention of promoting an incorporation, a total or partial split, a merger, a stockholding transformation or reorganization which involves the Company exists, and while the operation is not released to the public through relevant fact disclosure, the Board of Directors of the Company cannot deliberate the acquisition or disposal of shares issued by the Company.

12 – INDIVIDUAL INVESTMENT PLAN

12.1. The direct or indirect controlling shareholders, officers, members of the Board of Directors, Fiscal Board and any other board with technical or consultative functions, created by statutory provision, or by whoever, by virtue of their title or position they occupy in the Company, its controlling or controlled companies or affiliates, have knowledge of the Relevant Information may formalize Individual Investment Plans regulating their negotiation with shares issued by the Company.

12.2. The Individual Investment Plans may allow the negotiation of shares issued by the Company in the lock-out periods set forth in subitems (ii), (iii) e (iv) of item 11.1 and item 11.6, provided that:

- (i) they are formalized in writing before the Investor Relations Officer before the fulfillment of any negotiation;
- (ii) they establish, irrevocably and irreversibly, the dates and values or the amount of the businesses to be fulfilled by the participants; and
- (iii) they prescribe a minimum term of 6 (six) months so that the plan itself, its eventual modifications and termination produce effects.

12.3. The Individual Investment Plans may allow the negotiation of shares issued by the Company in the terms set forth in subitem (i) of item 11.1, besides the observed in item 12.2 above, as long as:

- (i) the Company has approved a defined schedule with specific dates to the disclosure of ITR and DFP forms; and
- (ii) require its participants to revert to the Company any loss or income earned in negotiations with shares issued by the Company, resulting from eventual changes in the disclosure dates of Forms ITR and DFP, ascertained through reasonable criteria defined in the plan itself.

12.4. It is forbidden for the Investment Plan Participants:

- (i) to simultaneously keep more than one Individual Investment Plan in effect; and
- (ii) to perform any transactions that annul or mitigate the economic effects of the transactions to be determined by the Individual Investment Plan.

12.5. The Board of Directors shall verify, at least every six months, the adherence of the negotiations performed by the Investment Plan Participants formalized by themselves.

13 - PENALTIES

13.1. The Concerned Persons who violate any provision in this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy undertake to integrally and without limitation indemnify the Company and/or other Concerned Persons, for all losses they may incur and that is directly or indirectly derived from such violation.

14 - AMENDMENT

14.1. Any amendment to this Disclosure and Negotiation Policy must be communicated to the CVM and Stock Exchanges.

15 - EFFECTIVENESS

15.1. This Disclosure and Negotiation Policy come into effect upon approval by the Board of Directors, and must continue to take effect for an indefinite term, unless otherwise decided by the Board of Directors.
